JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

[From the Philadelphia Age, Jan. 5.]

THE FORTY THIEVES—A MISSIONARY DAUGHTER THEIR QUEEN.

Of late there have been a number of arrests of vagabond characters belonging to that predatory band known as the "Forty Thieves." Ten of the men are now in Moyamensing to answer for the thefts they have committed. One of them, Morgan by name, protested he was guilty of no criminal conduct, and yet when he was searched it was found that he had on four stolen coats, three pairs of pants and an equal number of shirts.

This gang had a Queen, and it was only yesterday that her arrest was secured. She is a young woman, giving her name as Emma West Danfield, Her age is twenty-one years, and she is neither pretty nor exceedingly plain in appearance. She states that she is the daughter of a local preacher living in Germantown, who once was a missionary to India. For more than two years she has been one of the moving spirits of the "Forty Thieves." Against the entreaties of her parents, against all the petitions of her friends to return to her home and stay there, she turned a deaf ear.—Whenever the gang held its rendezvous, there she would go, and remain for weeks at a time, doing the cooking for the vagabonds who composed it. In a hollow, made by the intersection of the Junction Railway embankment with that of the Norristown Railway, the members generally assembled. Old rails and boards were leaning against one of the steep embankments, and this formed a rude shelter under which the gang slept. A pile of old railroad ties, near by, was used to cover up the booty that was secured in the city, by robberies of every description. The stump of a tree was burned out, and made quite a stove, by which the "Queen" cooked the food for the thieves. This girl has been often an inmate of the station houses. She is cunning in her speech, and contradicts in one moment all she had said relative to the operations of the gang.

[From the Oil City Times.]

SKELETON OF A GIANT IN THE OIL REGIONS.

Tuesday last, while Mr. W. Thompson and others were engaged in making an excavation, they exhumed an enormous helmet of iron, which was corroded with rust.—Further digging brought to light a sword which measured nine feet in length. Curiosity incited them to enlarge the hole, and after some little time they discovered the bones of two enormous feet. Following up the "lead" they had so unexpectedly struck in a few hours' time they had unearthed a well preserved skeleton of an enormous giant, belonging to a species of the human family which probably inhabited this and other parts of the world at that time of which the Bible speaks, when it says, "And there were giants in those days." The helmet is said to be of the shape of those found among the ruins of Nineveh. The bones of the skeleton are remarkably white. The teeth are all in their places, and all of them are double, and of extraordinary size. These relics have been taken to Tionesta, where they are visited by large numbers of people daily. When his giantship was in the flesh, he must have stood 18 feet in his stockings. These remarkable relics will be forwarded to New York.

CUBAN AFFAIRS.—The following is an extract from late dispatches received by Mr. Morales Lemas They were dated at the Republican Headquarters at Libanica: "According to all appearances, the Spanish Government is now about making a last desperate effort during the winter towards suppressing the rebellion, and to that end it will send from the Peninsula other regiments, and it is further intended to put into the field the larger part of the eighty thousand volunteers who are now under arms in the Island. We are not, however, frightened. We are calmly awaiting the attack, although, our arms are inferior to those of the Spaniards, both in number and quality. We lack many things that are indispensable. Our powder is nearly exhausted, and we have been compelled to remain stationary in a time when the enemy was weakest, to the great prejudice of our cause. Efforts are now being made to manufacture this article here among us, but the first ingredients are wanting. We have as yet made but a small quantity. We have, however, six or eight tons, more or less, and have it to say that all the armies of Spain will not be able to drive us backward."

Louis Riel, the Commander-in-chief of the Winnipeg insurgents, is twenty four years old, is five feet and a half high, rather slim, and of light complexion. His father was a native of Canada, and his mother of Canadian descent. Since he came out of college he served some time in a dry goods store at Minneapolis. He is a young man of good behavior, finished education and refined manners. His moral character stands without a blemish. Mr. John Bruce, President of the insurgents, is a Scotch half-breed. He is a farmer, and was a special constable under the government of the Hudson Bay Company. He is intelligent and of good standing in his community.—Mr. Donohue, who, with the President and Secretary, forms the rebel Executive Committee of three, and who is also a member of the Council, is a young man of extensive education, and a polished, genial gentleman. He is twenty eight years of age, of tall figure, light hair and complexion. He was born in the United States, and it is said that his Irish courage and activity add valuable assistance to the patriot cause in Rupert's Land.

A NEW SWINDLE.—A new device for getting money from the unwary has been hit upon by some unprincipled schemer in New York city. A lithographed letter has been sent throughout the West, which is designed to lead the reader to suppose that it has been issued by the Fourth National Bank of that city. The circular represents that it is probable that the institution will fail in the spring, and it is desirable to circulate a large amount of the bills before the first of May. In order to do this, it is proposed to sell them at fifty cents on the dollar. After the word "Fourth" the circular has the letters "st." in very small type, so as to make it read "Fourth-Street National Banking-House of New York City." Correspondents are requested to forward the sum of ten dollars, when, of course, they will hear nothing further from the institution.

"ABUSED THEM TERRIBLY."

The Standard says we "abused the city Democrats terribly," in our speech at the Court House, on Monday, for not turning out. We don't think Pike could prove the truth of what he says by Galloway, who was present and heard all we said. No man heard this "abuse," except Pike, and he failed to tell what we said that was abusive.

As to the throwing Jim Jones, the colored Janitor of the Court, out at the window, of which Pike would make so much, we have to say he is hard run for something to make capital out of. While we were speaking, Jones interrupted us by saying, he wished to say a word; some of the boys cried, "Put him out! Put him out!" We said, "No, Jonas shall be heard. It is Judge Settle who gags me, and we will not imitate his example."

Pike's friend, Jones, was fully heard, and all he had to say was, to suggest that we apply to the Judge for the use of the Court House. Jones might, we think, have wanted for the conclusion of our remarks to make his suggestion, but he and Pike think differently, and we cheerfully concede to them the enjoyment of their opinion.

We are willing to leave it to Galloway and Cuffee Mayo to say if Jim Jones did not violate parliamentary law as well as the law of courtesy, in interrupting us as he did.

As to the rest of Pike's article about the Democrats desiring to deprive the colored race of their rights, that is all bosh.

SUPPOSED CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN THE EDITOR OF THIS PAPER AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Sentinel Office, Jan. 10th 1870.

HON. L. P. OLDS, ATTORNEY GENERAL, SIR:—I recently hired a horse and sulky in the city of Charlotte, for my trip to the 38th Senatorial District. While a friend was driving, near the House of Richard Moore, in the county of Polk, the horse fell and broke both shafts of the sulky. The said horse was very dull, and I had worn out the whip completely on him.

In connection with this matter I desire your opinion on two points:

I. Am I bound in law to make good the whip?

II. Am I bound to make good the shafts?

I may state, for your better understanding the case, that, instead of the whip, I returned a good hickory switch; and instead of the shafts, which were, perhaps, beginning to decay about the mortices, I returned two symmetrical hickory saplings, with the bark nicely peeled off, and as securely attached to the remnants of the broken shafts as Dick Moore, with a supply of rope and whang leather could make them.

Every man in the State, except, perhaps, His Excellency, your father in-law, and the committee who purchased the Penitentiary site on Deep River, would be glad while you are on the subject of opinions, to render one in regard to the legality of the $100,000 bonds issued to Col. Heck and Gen (I believe he is a Gen.) Pruyn for that land.

If you will give me your opinion on the above points, it will oblige many tax-payers, and perhaps, be of service to future sulky hirers, as well as to your humble servant, JOE TURNER, Jr.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Raleigh, Jan. 11th, 1870.

[As we stated yesterday, we have no doubt the Attorney General is so busy as to be unable to form an opinion on any subject, and according to promise we draft one for him, which, we have no hesitation in believing he will readily adopt, which is as follows:]

Hon. Jos. Turner, Jr.,

MY DEAR SIR:—You are aware that I informed His Excellency, my father-in law, the Governor, that many difficult questions were daily presenting themselves for the consideration of the Crown Law Officer, (meaning myself,) and that he had proved himself equal to the emergency, because, in all the opinions delivered there had not been the first error, and, ergo, the office ought to have a fixed salary attached to it.

But to the subject matter of your inquiries: It is very clear to my mind, and I think I am sustained by the authorities (though, to tell the truth, I don't know which they are,) that you are not bound to make good the whip, to the complainant. I lay down the general premise, that you wanted a horse to go. If the horse furnished did not possess, per se, the will to move, it became the duty of the owner to furnish the necessary stimulus, in the shape of the whip, to produce the desired property in the horse, to wit, to disposition to go. The owner should have furnished a better horse or a tougher whip. In the second place, secondly, the horse belonged to the owner, and the whip belonged to the same, and we may reasonably conclude that one was intended for the encouragement of the other, and that the horse got the benefit of the whip, and I hold that in this case the owner would have no cause of complaint, whatever the horse might have. This point being settled, that the horse and whip belonged to the owner and that the whip was intended for the benefit of the horse, and the horse got the benefit of it, you are not at all responsible, nor obliged to make good the whip. Quod erat demonstrandum.

As to the sulky, the question is more difficult and complex. In one view of the case it is clear you must pay for a pair of new shafts; but from another view it is equally clear you should not. The question may arise was the sulky par onerii? If so, and you were drunk, why you are clearly bound, although the immediate cause of the breaking was the fall of the horse. If you were sober, and the breaking produced by intentional falling, (and I hold here that the question hinges on the intention of the horse,) you are clearly not responsible.

Your suggestion that the horse was drunk, is hardly tenable. I have never heard of a horse and sulky being drunk, and there is no instance of such a case that I remember in "the" books." I remember hearing of a case of a horse and buggy being drunk once, in Rockingham, when Judge Settle's Law student was driving, but I cannot find the case in Phillips' Reports, and therefore cannot avail myself of the light it affords on this question.

In view of the doubts which rest on my mind in this matter, I propose that it be referred to the Supreme Court. When that body shall render an opinion on the question of the Legislature holding over, they can add an opinion on the sulky question in a postcript, the one being, constitutionally, as much a question before them as the other.

With sentiments of high regard, I subscribe myself, as I am by virtue of His Excellency's appointment,

L. P. OLDS,
Attorney General of N. C.

OPINION OF HON. B. F. MOORE.

We publish by permission an opinion of B. F. Moore, Esq., given sometime ago to a friend, upon the duration of the legislative term of the present General Assembly.

In construing the constitution, we should keep constantly in view, our political condition at the time of framing its provisions.

In the midst of a confusion, consequent upon the results of a protracted civil war, the convention set to form anew the great fundamental provisions of the legislative, executive and judicial departments. The convention assembled in the early part of the year; and a prominent purpose with that body was to provide, so soon as was practicable, a settled form of Government for the State.

The prospect was that this might, and probably would be accomplished, as early as the ensuing June, and before the regular and long established period for electing State officers. One of these departments, the judiciary, had hitherto been ihdependent of the popular vote.

The Convention determined to subject the selection of the officers of all these departments to the direct popular will, and, at the same time to secure, so far as could conveniently be done, the earliest expression of that will, and to provide for its continued expression thereafter, at stated and regular periods of time.

Having fixed the tenure of office in the several departments, they proceeded to put the government in regular operation at the soonest convenient time.

The term of the executive officers, being fixed at four years, it was deemed desirable that its regular beginning should be on the first day of January, and so it was fixed.—But it was necessary, in order to prevent a vacancy, or an independent election for a very short time, that the interval, between the first election and the first day of January, should be filled; and it was therefore provided, by article 3, concerning the "Executive Department," that the Governor and all its other officers, who might be elected at the first election, should "assume the duties of their office ten days after the approval by the Congress of the United States, and should hold their offices for four years from and after the first day of January 1869."

In this way the fractional part of the year was added to the regular term, and a second and inconvenient election was avoided and the first day of January, so long established as the commencement of the official term of the Executive, was preserved.

In regard to the judicial term, which, for the first time in our political history, was limited to years, it was provided that it should endure for eight years; and in the outset should begin at the same time when the Executive and legislative term began, to wit, upon the approval of the Constitution by the Congress of the United States."

The provision in Sec. 20, Art. 4, is explicit, that the term of the justices of the Supreme Court shall be eight years, and that the term of the judges of the Superior Courts shall be for the like time, with the proviso, that six of these twelve judges should hold for four years only, and the other six for the full term of eight years.

The incumbents, respectively, for the long and short terms, were to be determined by lot, under the superintendence of the Justices of the Supreme Court.

The provison in sec. 32, (which includes, among the other officers to be chosen under Art. 4, the Judges and Justices,) that they should "hold their offices for the terms prescribed" for them respectively, next ensuing after the next regular election for members of the General Assembly," will have a clear meaning consistent with the tenure of eight years for a full term, and four years for a half term, if the expression, "next ensuing after the next regular election for members of the General Assembly," was intended to refer to the legislative period then fixed for election of the members of the Assembly, to wit: the first Thursday of the ensuing August. If this period be that which was in the minds of the Convention, then sections 26 and 32 become harmonious; and we shall not be obliged to make eight years mean ten, or twelve years, nor go beyond the clear meaning of section 32; for it was manifestly intended, by the concluding clause of the section, that the time, when elapsed after the election and preceded the period of the commencement of the regular term, should be added to the first four years and should not be counted in the allotment to be made by the Justices of the Supreme Court. Any other construction will give to the six Judges of the Superior Courts, to whom are allotted that term, an official tenure of six years, and a fraction of a year, if the regular election meant be in August, 1870; and a tenure of eight years and a fraction, if the regular election meant be in 1872. There is no escape from this consequence. Moreover, the official term cannot be equally divided between the incumbents if it embrace ten years; for, if it were so divided, the first class would go out in 1873, a year when there can be no election for members of the General Assembly. So that the term, in order to be equally divided and ensure elections of Judges when members of the General Assembly are elected, must begin with the legislative term in August, 1868. This long established day was in the minds of the framers of the Constitution in penning this section. This construction, adopted by the Supreme Court, answered every end in view. It disposed of the fractional time, by adding it to the first official term, and enabled the Justices to make the allotment of four, as the half of eight years. The expression, "next" regular election," was not intended to mean an actual election but the time then prescribed by an existing law for a regular election of members of the General Assembly. The time was described by reference to a well known law regulating elections. The last clause of this (32) section, "But their terms shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States," was evidently inserted only for the purpose of preventing the inconvenience of a vacancy not covered by a regular term, and not to unnecessarily elongate the first term of office. Where was the need or propriety of such extension?—None can be suggested, and none ought to be allowed, unless there be no other allowable construction. Let it be borne in mind, too, that a contrary construction of these words will also extend the term of office of the Justices of the Supreme Court to twelve years

Having disposed of the official tenure of the officers of the executive and judicial departments, let us turn our attention to the legislative. All the provisions of the constitution in reference to this branch, are to be found in art 2, (being those which declare that the members of each House shall be "biennially chosen" by the voters), and the sections 27 and 29, which are in the following words:

Sec. 27. "The terms of office for Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall commence at the time of their election; and the term of office of those elected at the first election held under this constitution shall terminate at the same time as if they had been elected, at the first ensuing regular election.

Sec. 29. The election for members of the General Assembly shall be held for the respective districts and counties, at the places where they are now held, or may be directed hereafter to be held, in such manner as may be prescribed by law, on the first Thursday in August, in the year 1870, and every two years thereafter. But the General Assembly may change the time of holding the elections. The first election shall be held when the vote shall be taken on the ratification of this constitution by the voters of the State, and the General Assembly th n elected, shall meet on the 15th day after the approval thereof by the Congress of the United States, if it fall not on Sunday, but if it shall so fall, then on the next day thereafter; and the members then elected shall hold their seats until their successors are elected at a regular election."

In interpreting these provisions it is our duty to harmonize them if possible, each one with the others; and to give practical force to the sacred privilege secured to the people in Sec. 28, of the "Declaration of Rights," which proclaims, that "for redress of grievances, and for amending and strengthening the laws, elections should be often held."

In accordance with this constitutional guaranty of popular rights the constitution provides, that elections of persons entrusted to redress grievances and amend and strengthen the laws shall be biennially had.

It is but reasonable to suppose, that the framers of the constitution intended honestly to carry out this great fundamental principle of popular rights; and it would be a melancholy evidence of hypocrisy to discover, that any stratagem had been designedly employed to prevent its execution; and that while biennial terms, in one clause, were plainly and emphatically announced in direct words, as a right of the people, other words of dark and obscure meaning used in convolved sentences of ambiguity, had elsewhere been employed to cheat the promise so unequivocally given. I will not presume the existence of such an intent, and, though the phraseology is wanting in perspicuity, I will proceed to defend their integrity of purpose by a fair and reasonable interpretation of their language. Here, again, we must bear in mind, that if the convention were successful in restoring the State to the Union, and they intended to fix a convenient commencement of the legislative term, or to adopt (the first Thursday of August), which had been found acceptable to the people after so long a trial, still there would, in all probability, be some period of time, less than two years in which there would be no General Assembly, unless a General Assembly were provided for that short time only; or unless in order to avoid such inconvenience the term of the first General Assembly should be made to embrace this fractional time by adding it to that term. The latter mode was wisely adopted, hence it was provided by Sec. 27, while the eye was kept steadily on the general biennial term, that the "terms of office for Senators and members of the House of Representatives shall commence at the time of their election." The time of election is thus made in the instance of the first election, the commencement of the term of the first General Assembly. The remaining paragraph of this section was intended to proclaim the termination of the first term. It declares "and the term of office of those elected at the first election held under this constitution shall terminate at the same time as if they had been elected, at the first ensuing regular election." The "ensuing regular election," here intended, must also be read in reference to the occustomed period of regular elections then fixed by law, to wit, the first Thursday in August, 1868.

There is not only no forced interpetation in giving to the expression this meaning, but it accords with the constitutional plan marked out for the executive and judicial terms, and carries out, as nearly as practicable, the security of the biennial term.—This interpretation becomes manifest when we read sec. 29, soon after following, wherein it is most unequivocally and emphatically commanded, that the election of members for the General assembly shall be held for their respective districts and counties, on the first Thursday in August in the year 1870, and every two years thereafter." Now, if the interpretation put on sec. 27, when standing alone, be the subject of doubt by reason of ambiguous words, there can be none from this source in sec. 29.

This section is clear and explicit, and replete with details, all of which are obvious in meaning, are harmonious, and in full accord with the requirements of biennial sessions. Let us examine it in all its parts. It declares as follows:

1. "The first election shall be held when the vote shall be taken on the ratification of the constitution."

2. "The General Assembly then elected, shall meet on the fifteenth day after the approval thereof by the Congress of the United States."

3. "The members then elected shall hold their seats until their successors are elected at a regular election."

4. "The election for members of the General Assembly shall be held for the respective districts, and counties, on the 1st Thursday in August, in the year 1870, and every two years thereafter."

This enumeration of details distinctly announces the time of electing the members of the first General Assembly, which shall be elected under the constitution. The time of its meeting—the duration of their term to a second day; and that, on that day, another General Assembly shall come into being. There is nothing left out of this section to be supplied by any other, but a provision declaring when the terms of office, of the members thus elected on the first Thursday of August 1870, shall commence. This is declared by the first clause of section 27, to be "at the time of their election." It is obvious, therefore, that if the provision at the close of section 27, prescribing the legislative term of office, were directly and irreconcilably in conflict with that in section 29, (and there is no escape from this dilemma,) it it be construed to extend the term to 1872) we must reject, in toto and without qualification, the one or the other. Then will arise the important question, which of them shall be accepted as the section that contains the true meaning. Is it section 27, which extends the first term to August 1872, ignores the spirit of section 28, of the "Declaration of Rights," disregards and overrules the provisions for biennial sessions, prolongs the term to more than four years, and stifles the voice of the people during all that time without any apparent cause, elongates the judicial term to twelve years, and utterly deranges the allotment of the tenure of the Superior Court judges? or is it section 29 which respects the "Declaration of Rights," acknowledges and enforces biennial elections, restricts the legislative term to two years, preserves the judicial term of eight years, and allows a sensible and practical allotment of the tenure of office assigned to the judges of the superior courts?

If the acknowledged rules of construction, or the spirit of the constitution, be allowed to speak, every doubt vanishes at the voice of either, and section 29 will be accepted as the true expositor.

I am respectfully yours,
B. F. MOORE.

For the Sentinel.

MEETING IN ALAMANCE.

A meeting of the citizens of Alamance county was held at the Court House, in Graham, on the 8th of January, 1870, to express their views in regard to the state of the country.

The meeting was organized by calling to the chair, Jesse Gant, Esq., and requesting Messrs. J. A. Long and J. L. Scott, to act as secretaries.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting and appointed the following committee to draft resolutions expressive of the object of the convention, viz: Messrs. J. E. Boyd, J. A. Graham, Joseph B. McMurray, Alvis King, Thomas Foust, Freeman Louth, Alfred Isley, John Ireland and Bennett Hazzell.

While the committee were out, Dr. J. A. Moore, our worthy representative in the Legislature, being loudly called for, entertained the meeting in his usually eloquent style, showing by facts and figures our liabilities as a State, and also, the bad results incident to and growing out of the "Shoffner Bill," should it become a law.

The committee then made the following report which on motion was unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1st, That the masses of the people are the sovereigns of this land, and that they have the right to meet together and consult as to such measures as they may deem of interest to the common country.

2nd, That the time seems to have arrived when it becomes all good citizens of North Carolina to unite to save the State from bankruptcy and ruin, and bring about that state of harmony, prosperity and peace which the country so much needs.

3rd, That the representatives in the legislature of the country are the servants and not the masters of the people, and should work for the good of the people and not to enrich themselves by corrupting the government and oppressing the people.

4th. That in our opinion the terms of the present members of the Legislature of this State cease on the 1st Thursday in August, 1870, and that the people voted for them for that period; and that any resolution or act of theirs by which they determine to hold over for four years will be a plain usurpation of power which was not granted to them by the people, and in utter disregard of their trusts as public officers.

5th. That we are the friends of peace and good order and the enemies of lawlessness and violence, and that we wish to see every man secured in the unmolested enjoyment of all his civil and political rights.

6th. That the officers of the law have not been disturbed in the execution of their duties; that peace and good order has generally prevailed and we believe the courts of justice and the peace officers to be fully competent to maintain the laws of the country

7th. That we look upon the military bill lately introduced into our legislature as a measure which perpetrates a greater wrong than the one it is intended to prevent; that because of the misbehavior of a few it is no reason that the lives and property of all should be hazarded, that a military despotism should be inaugurated, the great writ of Habeas corpus suspended and the liberty of the people destroyed. That the introduction and entertainment of such a bill shows an ignorance of the first principles of free government and a malignant desire to promote controversy by exciting strife among the people and to shed the blood of war in time of peace.

8th. That we demand that the alleged frauds in the management of our State bonds, Railroad affairs, &c., should be rigidly investigated, and if such frauds have been committed, the guilty parties brought speedily to such punishment as they deserve.

9th. That we are in favor of and demand that the taxes levied and collected for the purposes of education in the State be applied for that purpose and no other, and that we are bitterly opposed to depriving the poor children of this State of education in order to pay Legislators $7 per day to ruin the people.

10th. That universal suffrage is a dead issue, and that the colored man is secure in all the privileges which he now enjoys is a fact settled beyond all controversy, and we demand, as a matter of justice and right, that the political disabilities, which have been imposed, be removed from every man in the country, and we respectfully ask Congress to pass a law to this effect.

11th. That these resolutions be sent to the SENTINEL for publication, and that the Hillsboro' Recorder, Greensboro' Patriot, and other papers in the State interested in its welfare requested to copy.

After the adoption of the above resolutions Messrs. J. E. Boyd and J. A. Graham addressed the audience at length, in able and patriotic speeches.

Col. W. A. Albright and G. A. Freeland, Esq., being called, excused themselves by making a few remarks.

J. E. Boyd, Esq., offered the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting is due and is hereby tendered to the Chairman and Secretaries for the manner in which they have discharged their duties.

On motion of J. E. Boyd, Esq., the meeting adjourned.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CASH COMPANY IN THE WEST!

The Stock of this Company is owned by the Capitalists of Louisville, Ky., and St. Louis, Mo. It is emphatically a Western and Southern Institution.

The DE SOTO has no desire to exalt its merits over those of other good Companies, nor to prosper on the decline of others, laboring in the same fields, and for the same grand object. Confident of its equal advantages with others, of whatever age or standing, it is willing to labor honorably for success, and hopes to deserve the public confidence by its energy, industry, and liberal spirit.

From the Missouri Republican.

"Few Companies have started out with such gratifying and flattering prospects of success, and under such favorable auspices. The Company has been extremely fortunate in the selection of its Directory. Its President, JAMES H. LUCAS, needs not a word of commendation from us. He enjoys a general reputation as a gentleman of wealth, unquestioned integrity, practical good sense, sound judgment and splendid business capacity.

The Directors rank among the first class of our merchants, bankers and citizens, as men of capital, financial ability and experience: men of probity and unblemished reputation. In the character of such a Directory, the community have the best guarantee that the business of the Company will be prudently and judiciously managed."

Policies issued on all the popular plans and all Non-Forfeiting.

Policy-holders may travel by the usual modes of conveyance, either by land, river, lake or coastwise, in any portion of the United States and Territories, the settled portions of the two Canadas, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and in time of peace may pass and repass the Atlantic Ocean by the usual passenger routes to, and travel and reside within, any portion of Europe.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

We refer generally to the new advertisements in this morning's issue. We will notice them more particularly to morrow.

We have no new developements in regard to the Telegraphers' strike. They seem to be determined to hold out.

We are now prepared to say, upon what may be considered reliable authority, that the "Mist of the morning" bitters, advertised by Ph. Thiem, is a pleasant medicine to take, and acts admirably on the digestive organs.

Quent Bryant didn't die of the stroke he received, on Monday. So far from it that, after being at home awhile, he is said to have armed himself with a pistol, returned up town and was about to shoot Links, when he was arrested and lodged in prison, where he still remains.

MEETING LAST NIGHT.—The necessity of going to press early in order to save our Semi-Weekly and Daily mails, prevents us noticing properly the meeting at the Court House last night. The meeting was very full, and several excellent speeches were delivered, which will be noticed more particularly to morrow.

RENTING OF PEWS AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.—We are requested to remind the membership and congregation of the Baptist Church, that Thursday evening, 13th inst., is set apart for the renting of the pews.

We learn that this plan has been devised to equalize the expenses of the church, including the support of the pastor, relief of the poor, sexton, gas, fuel, and Insurance; and that, as no collections will be taken up except for the objects of the Baptist State Convention on the 1st Sabbaths in February, August and November, that suitable boxes will be placed on the door-facings in the vestibule, in which voluntary offerings may be deposited by strangers and friends who feel an interest in supporting the Baptist Church.

A sufficient number of pews have been assessed to raise the amount required, and the remainder, comprising the most choice in the Church, will be rented and placed at the disposal of three polite Ushers, for the accommodation of those who prefer not to rent and for strangers.

Renters of pews will be expected to accommodate visitors and strangers with any vacant seats in their respective pews when there is an unusually full attendance.

EATING OUT.—Gastronomy is a popular science and a useful art. We build railroads, establish telegraphs, inaugurate steamship lines, elect public officers, are married and buried, under the influence of good eating. If men meet they eat. When they are about to part they eat. If we are in trouble we give vent to our griefs through the smoke of roast and stew; and when we are joyful call our friends together to help us eat. In short, we are decidedly an eating nation, a people of festivals.

At an election in Charlotte on the 1st inst., for municipal officers, a new regime was installed, whereupon, the new Mayor gave a supper to the outgoing Board and, like a sensible man, invited the Press. The Times got jolly and wrote a notice of the joyous occasion, described the solids and liquids, &c. Among other things the Reporter states that the table was loaded, in part, with "oysters, turkey, ham, sardines, fruits, and other kinds of cakes." And besides the "fruits," they had "pine-apples and mountain apples." Wish we had been there.

Thus the retiring Board eat out, and the incoming Board eat in.

A NEW STEAM FIRE ENGINE.—It will be seen by notice in another column, that the Legislature will be asked to charter a new fire company for Raleigh. The company has already been formed, under the named of the "RESCUE FIRE ENGINE COMPANY, No. 1," and the following officers chosen:

J. C. Brewster, Foreman.
W. C. Stronach, Assistant Foreman.
Douglas Bell, Treasurer.
J. C. Gorman, Secretary.
Sam. Merrill, Hose Director.
A. Moses, Pipeman,
C. A. Gaylord, Assistant Pipeman,

The uniform adopted is, the blue Navy shirt trimmed with white, red cloth cap, black pants, and white enameled belt, with the name of the Company on the cap and belt.

The company have made arrangements for a new steam fire engine, on liberal terms, which will arrive in a week or two, and they expect the property holders, and Insurance Companies of the city to help them pay for it.

The Company is an independent one, except at fires, when they will place themselves under the command of the Chief of the City Fire Department. The Company is composed of the pride of the young men of the city, and they are determined to make their association efficient and worthy the encouragement of the public. No rowdy or disorderly element will be admitted into the Company.

The next thing to be done is for the Commissioners to go to work and lay in a supply of water to make the company effective in case of a conflagration.

STILL IMPROVING.—We noticed the street hands at work yesterday, putting more loose dirt in the middle of Fayetteville St. If they keep on helping that street in that way, it will be impassable after awhile.

Mrs. Rose Madder is lecturing in Ohio in opposition to woman's suffrage, as calculated to destroy her "conservative power." She argues the more woman takes upon herself the man quality, the less she governs man.

VISITORS TO THE PENITENTIARY.—As the Penitentiary is "something new" here, and many natives have never been in such an institution, and may, consequently, desire to go out and see how things look there we copy from the printed Rules and Regulations, some hints in regard to things to be observed by visitors. Messrs. Jno R. Harrison and A. L. Lougee, are the resident committee.

1. None but official visitors, viz: the Governor, members of the General Assembly, Judges, Sheriffs, &c., and such persons as have the written permission of the Commissioners, are allowed to visit the Penitentiary.

2. No persons but official visitors, are allowed to converse with, deliver to, or receive any message from, any convict, or supply them with any article.

3. Visitors are requested to report any violation of law or act of oppression they may discover, to the Commissioners.

4. All except official visitors, are required to pay a fee of 25 cents for admission, which is intended for the purchase of a prison Library.

5. All visitors are to be accompanied inside by an officer or guard, and they must not converse with, nor make personal allusion to convicts by word or gesture, nor indulge in loud talking or laughing.

6. Ingress and egress must be had by the guard room gate.

7. General visiting is not allowed on Sabbath.

8. Persons violating the regulations will be arrested.

We have condensed the above from the printed regulations, but they will, we think, be sufficiently explicit for the guidance of visitors to the Penitentiary.

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, Jan. 11.—Court was opened by the Marsal, at 10, A. M. All the Justices being present on the Bench.

The following gentlemen of the Bar were in attendance during the day, viz: Hon. Thos Ashe, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Col. John W. Hinsdale, Bart. Fuller, Esq., Giles Leitch, Esq., N. A. McLean, Esq., Col. W. M. L. McKay, Solicitor Neill McKay, Col. J. M. McCorkle, Capt. Jarvis, T. M. Argo, Esq., W. M. Robbins, Esq., V. C. Barringer, Esq. and Maj. John W. Graham.

Cases from the 5th Judicial District, were called and disposed of as follows:

Furman, Davis & Co. vs. E. F. Moore, Administrator, from Cumberland: argued by John W. Hinsdale, for Plaintiff, Bart. Fuller, and A. S. Merrimon for Defendant.

James A. Johnson vs. Henry Saunders, from Cumberland: argued by W. Mc. L. McKay, for Plaintiff, Bart. Fuller for Defendant.

Worthy vs. Commissioners of Moore, from Moore. Writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States. Continued to next term. This is an appeal from a decision of this Court; and it involves a construction of the Howard Amendment.

No opinions yet delivered. Court adjourned till to morrow 10, A. M.

The municipal election in Asheville on Jan. 1st, resulted in a Democratic triumph.

COUGHS.—The administration of Medicinal preparations in the form of a lozenge is of all modes the most eligible and convenient, more especially as regards a COUGH REMEDY. "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Cough Lozenges, allay irritation which induces coughing, giving instant relief in Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Influenza and Consumptive and Asthmatic complaints.

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls, to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further; for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the time-piece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in lustre and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this and Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates.—As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopoeia have been exhausted, without at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful, stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and reinvigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

THE PURCHASE OF CUBA.—A Washington correspondent has seen a private letter from Madrid, which says that Prim and Serrano are both inclined to favor a sale of Cuba to the United States, but are fearful of the effect on the Spanish people, who are bitterly opposed to it. Spain needs money, and that fact would no doubt facilitate negotiations.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be seen for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudice produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in this home made article.

H. Leberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphate Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the product much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry Summer."

SAW MILLS.

I AM PREPARED TO PUT UP DOUBLE ACtion Saw Mills in workmanlike manner for those desiring them.

There are now 140 of these Mills in operation, and in no case have they failed to give entire satisfaction. One advantage of this Mill is, that the sawyer, without changing his position gives the backward and forward motion to the carriage, with single lever; this is a saving of one hand in the mill. This is no humbug. I am responsible for what I say. My residence is 20 miles South of Raleigh, on Neal's Creek. For further particulars address me at Raleigh, N. C.

P. J. WRAY.

I will be at Lynn Adams' Store on the 2nd to the 5th of February, where persons desiring to see me will please call.

Mr. P. J. Wray, Dear Sir:—I am much pleased with my double Circular Saw Mill, built by you. I can cut a line 14 inches deep, 20 feet long, in 45 seconds, with my 12 feet overshot wheel. We have to-day cut 5,000 feet weather-boarding, flooring, and inch board, in eight hours.
Dec 23rd 1869. ALDRIDGE PARTIN.

Mr. P. J. Wray:—We are well pleased with our new double action Mill, that you set to work for us. We can cut twice the amount of lumber that we could with the old Mill of 48 inch saw and same water wheel.

John Peterson, imprisoned for the late embezzling of cotton in this place, was yesterday released from jail, having given the $1,000 bond required.—Roanoke News, Jan. 8th.

PETITION FOR A NEW POST OFFICE.—A petition was actively circulated yesterday afternoon, and by night over one thousand signature were obtain, asking Congress for an appropriation for a new Post Office building in our city. This is intended to back a bill which has been introduced to appropriate $100,000 for this purpose. A new Post Office more centrally located is sadly needed. In case that its construction is guaranteed the old building could be sold to an advantage.—Wil. Journal Jan. 8th.

The dead body of Jacob Rowe, an old citizen of this county, was found in the woods near Wilson, on yesterday, the 6th instant. An inquest was held over the body, under the superintendence of Coroner Peel. Dr. Ed. Barnes made an examination of the corpse, and there being no evidence of violence, the jury rendered a verdict of "Death from causes unknown."—Wilson Plaindealer, Jan. 7th.

The municipal election, on the 3rd inst., passed off quietly. There was no opposition to the Republican ticket, and consequently but little interest manifested.—Poll: For Mayor—G. W. Cobb, 144; scattering, 1, (complimentary to our erudite friend Proctor.) For Commissioners—J. B Robinson, 138; H. B. Coleman, 137; Lr. J. Commander, 135; S. Randall, 135; J. L. Brown, 132.—Carolinian, (Elizabeth City.)

A SUBSTITUTE FOR TOBACCO.—A correspondent of a Calcutta paper makes a curious suggestion to tobacco smokers. Alluding to the alleged discovery, by a Parisian chemist, that watercress is a perfect antidote to nicotine, he says:

"It lately entered into my head to try how some of it dried would smoke. To my great satisfaction, I found that, when put into my pipe, after a couple of days' drying in the sun, it had all the flavor of the best Cavendish without the treacle—and it was even stronger than Cavendish.—Here, then, is a perfect substitute for tobacco, without the deleterious and deadly poison so freely contained in the latter; and it is at the same time cheaper. Watercress, with its fine stalks and leaves, when dried, requires no cutting to fit it for the pipe; and while a pound of cut tobacco ranges from 2rs. to 4rs., here we have an article a rupee's worth of which, when dried, would weigh more than a couple of pounds."—Bombay Gazette.

The Mills are in excellent condition and has an extensive and profitable patronage. The situation is an excellent one for a Cotton Gin and a store and with these added the property would prove a fortune to any energetic man in a few years. The Gin and Store Houses could be put up at very little cost, as there is an excellent saw Mill attached to the other Mills with an abundance of timber on the land, belonging to the property. For further particulars apply to Mr. B. M. Pierce, who resides at the Mill, who will take pleasure in showing the property. Terms made known on day of sale.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 54,161, so soon as the parties authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 584 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed total assets amounting as to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
